XIII ENGINEERS DAY

15th September, birth date of Sir Mokshgundam Visvesvaraya, recipient of the Bharat Ratna which is the highest civilian award of the Republic of India is celebrated as Engineers' Day by engineering institutions of all over our country. Engineering fraternity and would-be engineers draw inspiration from the life and teaching of this great son of India. Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University celebrates the Engineers' Day every year to pay tribute to this legendary multi-faceted professional par excellence and great visionary of India. Continuing the tradition, PDPU jointly organized the 50th Engineers' Day celebration with The Institution of Engineers (India), Gujarat State Centre. The Institution of Engineers (India) sets the theme for Engineers' Day every year; this year's theme was the Role of Engineers in the Developing India.

The PDPU auditorium was decorated beautifully in accordance with the grandeur of the event and to host the dignitaries at the event. Dr. Anil Kane, President Emeritus, World Wind Energy Association and Ex-vice chancellor of MS University Baroda was the Chief Guest along with Mr. Bharat Patel, Council Member, Institution of Engineers (India) as the Guest of Honour for the function. This was the fourth year that the PDPU was celebrating Engineers' Day by felicitating exemplary and path-breaking leadership of Engineering/Technology Professional Entrepreneurs of Gujarat. The delegates to be felicitated this year were, Mr. Ashish Soparkar, Managing Director, Meghmani Organics Limited, Mr. Mukesh Bhandari, Chairman and Managing Director, Electrotherm India Limited and Mr. Nayan Parikh, Chairman and Managing Director, Multi Media Consultants Private Limited.

All the eminent delegates for the function were escorted to the venue by the organiser's and welcomed by the Director General (PDPU), Director (SoT), HoD's by presenting with the prosperity plant saplings. This was followed by invocation of Lord Ganesha and the lamp lighting ceremony to mark the holy beginning of the event.

Dr. T. Kishen Kumar Reddy, Director General (PDP) gave the inaugural address, thanking the dignitaries and then stressed on the areas to be addressed by the budding engineers to contribute in the growth of India. This was followed by the address of guest of honor, Mr. Bharat Patel whose speech centered on the duties that an engineer must render for the progress of a nation. He described the youth of this nation as a valuable asset to be directed in the growth of our nation's economy. The keynote address was then delivered by the chief guest, Dr. Anil Kane who focused on the importance and utilisation of non-conventional sources of energy. He also emphasised on the importance of manufacturing sector in the economy of a country. Following the address, the chief guest was then honoured by the Director General and the guest of honor was honoured by the Director, SoT with a shawl and a memento.

The felicitation ceremony was then commenced where the First Generation Engineer Entrepreneur from different fields of Engineering were felicitated for their lifelong contribution to the field. Mr. Ashish Soparkar, Managing Director, Meghmani Organics Limited, Mr. Mukesh Bhandari, Chairman and Managing Director, Electrotherm India Limited and Mr. Nayan Parikh, Chairman and Managing Director, Multi Media Consultants Private Limited were felicitated by the Director General and Director (SoT) by the University. All the felicitaries gave a brief address about their experiences in their discipline, the kind of values that the industry expects in an engineer and the role of engineers in the progress of our nation.

The program moved towards the end with the vote of thanks by the Director, School of Technology, Dr. H. B. Raghavendra, who thanked all the dignitaries for their valuable time and making the event fruitful with the glory they carried in boosting the to-be engineers of the University. The celebration came to an end where everyone stood up for the National Anthem, which imbibed a sense of patriotism in the auditorium. This marked the end of the programme.

All the dignitaries were happy to have a quick University tour after the program where they were given a glimpse of research undertaken in the University and met the enthusiastic and dedicated students and had brief discussions. All the delegates were then escorted to cafeteria for lunch. After having the delicacies the delegates were escorted to their respective vehicles and given a warm adieu. The half day celebration of Engineers' Day by the Engineers came an end and the weeklong efforts of all the volunteers and organizers were cherished!
